ARMY SCENES —The following is from a correspondent in Sheridan's army

MUSIC

Sailing up out of the night over crackling camp fires humming voices, flapping tents lifted and half drowned at intervals by fitful winds comes the music of a band Beneath the spell of that music how they come back—dreams of the past, memories of the North faces of the dead in battle the faces of living afar! Over the dim mountain edges arise trooping phantoms—the airs above are filled with murmurs not of the camp

Some softer notes, and [illegible] the chords that always soothe the hearts of simple soldiers with a most enchanting sadness They have already grown old in the North but they will never grow too old to be beautiful here any more than any song of home will to men alien the world over The woman who wrote "Rock Me to Sleep" could scarcely have dreamed that once upon a time it should become the lullaby of an army Was ever contrast so sweet as that between the field where "life, struck hard on death, makes awful lightning," and the calm of an autumn night and smouldering camp fires and thousands of men rocked to slumber on their arms by the music of a woman's song!

The music died, the winds are still the forests sigh no more.

The mountain verges fast in deeper night, the camp fires shed a feeble glow, the giant Strength that with two months has thrice grappled with and overthrown an army, lies motionless and prone

And of the music only the bugle lingers, its soft notes hovering like a bird's before it sinks to rest.

O hark O hear
How thin and clear
And thinner, clearer, farther going
O sweet and far,
From cliff and scar—
The Horns of Elfland faintly blowing
Blow bugle blow set the wild echoes flying
And answer, echoes answer dying dying dying

A BUILDER OF CITIES

An army is at once philosopher, mechanic—everything Its equanimity is wonderful—the effect of discipline and experience. It lies "out of doors" under the rain, it goes without meats upon the march, it wakes up and fights, and fights before going to bed, with equal scorn of discomfort and the consequences Stoicism is its creed It shrinks from nothing, and accomplishes all things by an indomitable will

The way in which an army builds itself a city is something grand and beautiful to behold On the march the shelter-tent and blanket suffice for the soldier's resting place! But in an encampment of days or weeks it is different He begets himself then to a more comfortable habitation, wrought by his own hands, with inconceivable speed and ingenuity. If the day be cold and the weather in prospect nasty, the work goes on with more than a dockyard's clatter and vim The woods resound with the blows of axes, and the clash of falling trees, and the thug of picks, and the rattle of impromptu trowels The growth of the forest and the dust of the earth are transformed into logs and mortar The stone walls encompassing a thousand patriarchal acres vanish beneath the "vandal hands" of the boys. Up go the frame work of a myriad little houses, up go a myriad stone chimneys attached, Uncle Sam's canvas forms the roof, earth and logs are the foundation and the framework Before the dark and dreary night comes on, the army has its comfortable home well built, its fires glowing it chimneys smoking, its savor of good cheer steaming everywhere, its stomachs ready for a rousing meal, its weary arms and legs ready for glorious, happy slumber

And when the night comes on the dark and dreary night, good cheer is master of its darkness and its gloom. Afar upon the hills, and in the woods, and on the plains, the fires lit by thousands of hands gleam and flicker bright to the eye, warm to the heart The bleak sky bends above a picture glowing, magnificent the sounds of voices and the hum of flames make up a most impressive music Faint and far come snatches of song—no war songs here

"Faint, fair, with golden hair,
Under the willows she's sleeping"

And, fainter still and further still

Ye banks and braes of bonnie Doon
How can ye bloom sae fresh and fair?"

REBEL ACCOUNT OF THE FALL OF FORT MCALLISTER AND SAVANNAH —The Augusta Chronicle of December 28th gives the following account of the fall of Fort McAllister and Savannah

We have just had the pleasure of a chat with one of our friends who left Savannah on Monday night. He states that authentic information has been received in Charleston that Savannah was successfully evacuated Tuesday night

When he left the city on Monday several hundred families were without anything to eat Provisions were exceedingly scarce

During the past week several assaults were made on our lines but were repulsed signally Our works around the city were very strong, and the place in all probability would have been held had it not been for the fall of Fort McAllister

The usual garrison of Fort McAllister numbered about one hundred and twenty five men A day or two before it fell, however, about six hundred more troops were sent to their aid By its fall we lost between seven and eight hundred men The fort was attacked on the north side by Sherman's forces No particulars of the fight have as yet been received It is known, however, that no attack was made on the south or water side It is also known that if the fort had been as strong on the land side as it was on the water side it never could have been captured After Sherman captured the fort he communicated with the fleet and procured a bountiful supply of ammunition—an article which he was deprived of by Providence in Atlanta Sherman also transferred the heavy guns from Fort McAllister to a position from which he could shell the city if he wished to

No demand was made for the surrender of the city until Saturday On that day he demanded the unconditional surrender of the city. General Beauregard in substance informed him that "he knew the way to the city and could take it if he was able" General Beauregard left the city on Sunday

The residents of Savannah did not expect that the city of Savannah would be captured They were totally unprepared for such a result But very few of them succeeded in getting away Those who did were obliged to leave most of their effects behind The best of order was maintained throughout the siege All the whisky was locked up The stills were all seized by the authorities The four local companies were assigned to police duty and kept law breakers quiet One or two small fires occurred but little property however was damaged All the rice on the plantations in the vicinity of the city fell into the hands of the Yankees Some estimate the amount at five hundred thousand bushels

The Confederate Government succeeded in removing most of its stores The main loss sustained by it was the loss of the siege guns about the place and gunboats One report is that all the gunboats were blown up to prevent them falling into the hands of the enemy Some believe however that the [illegible] succeeded in making her way up the river

The pontoon bridge across which our troops [illegible] was built at the foot of one of the streets of the city During the siege several attempts to destroy our communications on the Carolina side were made all of which proved futile

Bishop Elliot was in the city on Monday Our informant does not know whether he left the place or not There were two small steamboats at Savannah when the siege commenced It is reported that the Yankees captured the [illegible] and that the Macon was scuttled A large portion of the Central Railroad cars were sent down the Savannah and [illegible] Railroad before that line was interrupted

Both the printing offices in the city fell into the hands of the Yankees Both the editors left before the capitulation

An ingenious Pennsylvanian has invented a machine for mining which weighs 200 pounds, costs $700 and will do the work of twenty men The machine operates a series of picks which have the peculiar motion of the human arm when manipulating a pick in undermining or [illegible] but the coal and are moved up to their work by the same mechanism which operates them and their motion and movements can be graduated to any desired speed hence the machine can be worked by hand, horse, or steam power

General Exchange of Prisoners

It will rejoice the heart of all friends and foes even to learn that the recent meeting of the Rebel Commissioners, Stevens and Hunter, with President Lincoln and Secretary Seward resulted in one beneficial result, that a general exchange of prisoners shall take place immediately. By this arrangement the Libby Prison, and Belle Isle at Richmond and the worse than slave pens at Millen and Andersonville, will be relieved of some 45,000 of our soldiers, poor and wretched, who in the chances of war have had the misfortune to fall into the hands of the enemy, and have endured torture and cruelties enough to shock humanity everywhere, not only for to-day, but forever, for so long as the history of war shall be read, it will be a lasting stigma upon the South, that their boasted refinement and high claimed chivalry was a system of glittering generalities, bred in fields of fashion and practiced for self gratulation and to please the eye of the stranger, but forgot towards the captive, who by every civilized code of nations, holds a first claim upon the honor and sympathy of the captor.

It is claimed as a reason why the South has neglected to perform the ordinary duties of hospitality towards these unwilling recipients, that they aimed to drive the North to effect an exchange of prisoners upon their own terms. They seem to believe in the old adage, that all things are fair in war, and the Confederate government, having already by their cunning obtained fifteen thousand more prisoners than it has exchanged for, intended by such a horrible course of starvation and squalid cruelty to compel our Government to some course suited to their wishes. On the other hand, it is said that a general exchange would place another Southern army in the field and it is urged as expedient that the Federal rulers should refuse to make such exchange, because we can easier feed, clothe and maintain these forty thousand or more men in barracks and prisons, than to fight them in the field. But the question to the brave men, captives in Southern prisons and they will invariably answer the question the other way. They enlisted to fight our battles and are willing to run the constant danger of doing so. Not one of them volunteered to die by inches in Southern prison pens, and no argument or theory can reconcile them to it, or reconcile the fact of their being so left by their Government and for such a purpose, with the common dictates of humanity.

If the South will receive recruits, so will our own armies to at least the same extent, though the poor fellows may be lacking for awhile in the strength that better rations have given the more fortunate rebels for whom they are exchanged, but certainly the tens of thousands who have suffered and endured so much, will have better cause to prosecute the war upon their own account, and their presence among old comrades will instill new life and vigor into each army corps, and relieve the war on our part of a greater horror than death, for it has become the great fear of the Union soldier's heart, that he may have to occupy a Southern prison. War is terrible and inhuman enough, without adding lingering hunger to its horrors; and even if we know that the South has 40,000 men added to its waning fortunes, the nation will breathe with more freedom when it learns that its captive braves have returned to join their comrades in the ranks once more.

TWO WEEKS LATER.—The world has not been standing still since we last heard from the East. We have news only up to the 16th instant, and the wires are again out of order on the overland route. But we find that in every important section something has been gained by our armies. Grant has made an advance on the south of Petersburg, and after a sharp action has driven the rebel forces back two miles, and holds the ground gained without difficulty. Terry, forming the national forces into battle line, stretching from the Cape Fear river to the ocean, moved upon the enemy and drove them back two miles toward Wilmington.

Sherman, as irrepressible as ever, is rushing through South Carolina, capturing towns, destroying the railroads, and sweeping over all the obstacles the rebels have opposed to him. Branchville, the key to the railroad system of South Carolina, and the "open sesame" to Charleston, is occupied by him, so the Richmond papers own, and Charleston must soon fall. It is already encompassed if not overthrown, and the evacuation of Wilmington and Richmond seem necessary as a consequence of the results already gained. No disaster is heard of—the day of Federal disasters is past.

To-day is the anniversary of the birth of Washington. The news that comes to us of the success of the national power in its steady progress toward the suppression of the rebellion and the establishment of the Union upon a firmer basis than ever, is welcome at any time, but we congratulate ourselves that the resumption of telegraphic communication enables us to offer it to our readers upon the morning of a day sacred to the memory of the Father of his country.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 20 —A telegram from Ione valley, Amador county, reports that Herman Wohler, Esq, of this city, was shot last night while lying in bed, the assassin firing through the window. The ball passed through his right arm and entered the right breast below the nipple inflicting a serious but it is thought not fatal wound. Deputy U S Marshal Swain, with a company of troops was enforcing an execution of judgment in ejectment in favor of the owners of the Arroyo Seco Rancho, and Mr Wohler was on the ground to receive possession, and it is therefore supposed that the would be murderer was a squatter.

Private telegrams from New York report large foreign orders in the market for Government bonds, but shipments of cotton were heavy and imports light, and that these facts were the occasion of a heavy decline in sterling bills, which on the 16th, were quoted at 108@108½.

A telegram from Senator Conness, dated Washington, February 11, to James DeFremery, President of the Chamber of Commerce, of this city, says that the China Mail Steamship bill passed the House on that day, and has now become a law.

State of Affairs at Mobile.

NEW YORK, Feb 1 —The [illegible] special dispatch says officers from the fleet off Mobile report great activity in the removal of torpedoes and other obstructions in the harbor. It is confidently expected that the rebels will evacuate the city. The fleet is working its way up the harbor.

NEW YORK, Feb 13 —The Herald has an account of the situation of affairs around Mobile up to Jan 8th. The city was then surrounded by a strong string of earthworks and besides these it was defended in the harbor by water batteries, sunken obstructions, torpedoes and gunboats. The Petersburg Express says the fighting on Monday was very severe. The timber and undergrowth were utterly cut to pieces by balls and bullets. The ground was fought over four times, in consequence of the arrival of reinforcements to either side. The charge which broke the Yankee lines late in the day, is said to have been one of the grandest charges in military annals. The Yankees lost between 1,500 and 2,000 killed, wounded and prisoners.

Dispatch from Admiral Porter.

WASHINGTON, Feb 14 —Admiral Porter has forwarded the following to the Navy Department:

United States Steamer Monticello, off Wilmington, N C, Feb 13 —I have the honor to report that I entered Little river, N C, on the night of Feb 4th, proceeding eight miles with four boats and fifty men. I landed at the small town of All Saints Praise on Little river. The town was placed under guard without the knowledge of the inhabitants. I succeeded in capturing some soldiers. I held the place all the next day. I discovered and destroyed about one hundred thousand dollars worth of cotton, and also captured two flats at the mouth of the river containing 2[illegible] bales of cotton, which had been removed from a blockade runner to lighten her. These were brought off together with some negroes. The South Carolina planters and all the men who I met, professed to be willing to come back under the old Government. Most of them seem to be loyal men, only waiting for emancipation from military rule. On the 8th, I sent two boats crews ashore at Charlotte Inlet, N C, under the command of acting Master C A Pierce. He surprised and routed a rebel force detailed to collect provisions in that country, capturing six soldiers with arms and equipments, and destroyed the stores gathered for the army at Fort Anderson. The soldiers lately stationed at Charlotte had been withdrawn to assist in the defence of Wilmington. One hundred rebels are still at Lockwood Folly. The woods are full of deserters.

W B CUSHING,
Lieut Commanding

More about H. S. Foote.

NEW YORK, Feb 11 —The Times says that H S Foote was given the choice of returning South, going to England, or going to Fort Warren. The same paper says: Foote represents the Confederacy as on the eve of disruption. The struggle on the part of the rebels is nearly over. He says that high military authority in Richmond admits that the capture of Branchville will compel the evacuation of Charleston, Wilmington and even Richmond itself. He thinks the leaders will endeavor to leave the country, and the campaign on the part of the rebels will dwindle down into guerrilla fighting. Foote is prepared to make an address to the people of the South advising them to cease fighting and give up a contest which is so clearly hopeless, as no terms but unconditional surrender can be obtained, and to promptly accept the offered terms. Foote also reports that the unpopularity of Jeff Davis at the South is very great. The people have lost all confidence in him. The mission of Stephens, Hunter and Campbell was only a ruse on the part of Davis, and [illegible] commission to [illegible] the peace men of the South.

The Times says that Henry S Foote, late member of the rebel Congress, sailed for Europe on Saturday the 11th. The report that he had been sent to Fort Warren was without any foundation whatever.

Sherman's Movements.

The Herald's Hilton Head correspondent, writing under date of the 8th, says: Reliable information has been received here that Sherman's army is already marching on the Edisto river—that a portion of his troops are beyond the Georgia and South Carolina Railroad and have erected defenses preparatory to a future march.

The enemy [illegible] the advancing of our troops. They have manifested a purpose to evacuate nearly all their strongholds and retire further north.

The purpose has been the result of Sherman's tactics, that they will be [illegible], but surely [illegible] up admits no question. Our troops are known to extend over a distance of forty miles, and for several days have been occupied in destroying all the railroads connecting with the Gulf and Northern States.

The object seems to be to [illegible] Branchville, Augusta and Charleston [illegible] all possible aid or reinforcement, in order to capture the garrison of each city [illegible] north of Charleston, which is cut off from all reinforcements. A corps is moving simultaneously on the line of the Edisto.

The towns [illegible] have been deserted by a number of their inhabitants, who forced all able bodied negroes to leave with them in order that they may [illegible] army.

Hamburg, Aiken and Orangeburg, near Branchville, are reported captured.

NEW YORK, [illegible] —The [illegible] special dispatch [illegible] generally [illegible] tonight in official [illegible] that [illegible] Sherman's [illegible] and that Charleston is being evacuated. It is expected that [illegible] and Wilmington will be evacuated [illegible] that the rebels will make a desperate attempt to concentrate their entire force [illegible] to crush Sherman while he is in the interior. There is no doubt that strong [illegible] have been removed South from Richmond [illegible]

The Post's special dispatch says: Richmond papers of Saturday 11th admit that it is probable that the rebels are evacuating Charleston.

The Times Washington dispatch says: The latest Richmond papers received here, state un[illegible] Friday last the 10th that Sherman had [illegible] miles of that place. [illegible] Saturday the 11th [illegible] and [illegible] that it was a positive fact.

The Richmond papers [illegible] ment of the evacuation of Charleston is [illegible] necessary.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb 14 —The Bulletin [illegible] from Washington [illegible] Feb 12 announce the tapping of the railroad by Sherman north of Branchville [illegible] Kingsville and Branchville, thus destroying [illegible] communication at Branchville.

His Success Confirmed by Richmond Papers.

The Richmond Whig of the 1[illegible]th has the following:

CHARLESTON, Feb 10 —A force of the enemy 2,000 to 3,000 strong landed at Turnbull's [illegible] and this morning and drove in our pickets. Some skirmishing took place but no general engagement. Turnbull's is at the mouth of the river two miles Southwest of Charleston. [illegible] over 2,000 yards will intervene. [illegible] are making a series of demonstrations [illegible] posts. [illegible] attacked [illegible] this morning but were repulsed. The enemy also advanced on the Charleston [illegible] mile house and opened with artillery but [illegible] no impression on our lines. Intelligence from the [illegible] reports that the enemy crossed the Edisto at Barnwell's Bridge. The enemy are now moving on Edisto. It will be remembered that [illegible] Sherman crossed the Salkehatchie between Blackstone and Rivers bridge, thereby completely outflanking our forces and compelling them to fall back to Branchville. We have now learned that the Yankees waded the river [illegible] water waist deep at the bridge, where a sharp engagement took place which lasted several hours, in which Wheeler's cavalry inflicted severe damage on the enemy. On the 8th a heavy column of the Yankee infantry struck the S C Railroad at Graham's [illegible], 18 miles west of Branchville, while Kilpatrick with a cavalry force occupied Blackville on the same road, 9 miles northwest of Graham's. A portion of Sherman's column was reported yesterday to have moved forward crossing the South Edisto and flanking Branchville on the west. This force has been advanced to Orangeburg on the Columbia and Branchville R R, [illegible] miles west of the latter point.

He Occupies Branchville—Probable Evacuation of Charleston.

NEW YORK, Feb 15 —The Herald's special dispatch says: Richmond papers of Monday the 13th concede that Sherman has flanked Branchville above and below, and that the rebels have evacuated the place. They also state that a [illegible] column had reached Orangeburg on the Columbia road. All the railroad communication with Charleston are cut off except by the road from Wilmington, N C. By these operations communication between Virginia and the South is entirely cut off and rebel authority over the Southern States cannot longer be enforced. A later dispatch dated midnight Feb 11th says: Richmond papers of to-day have dispatches saying that a portion of Sherman's forces are busily engaged in the destruction of the railroads in South Carolina, and that another column is threatening Charleston. They don't confirm the reported evacuation of that place, but it is evident from the tenor of their advices and editorials, that they don't anticipate any resistance being made to Sherman's advance. It is also stated that a large Yankee force has landed at Smithfield, on the North Carolina coast and brought locomotives with them, evidently intending to use the railroads to facilitate military operations after they shall have captured Wilmington.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb 15 —The Evening Bulletin's Washington dispatch says the Richmond papers confirm the reports of Sherman's occupation of Branchville and Orangeburg. An advance on Columbia is anticipated. Wheeler's cavalry appears to be the only force operating against Sherman.

Successful Advance of Our Forces towards Wilmington.

NEW YORK, Feb 16 —The Herald's Fort Fisher correspondent says: Last Saturday morning (11th) the national troops formed in line [illegible] above Fort Fisher, stretching across the peninsula from the ocean to Cape Fear river, Gen Ames' division of white soldiers forming the right and Gen Payne's colored division the left. A simultaneous movement was made by the two wings and the rebels were driven from their lines to the main works, being forced to yield. The total casualties on Union side were 60 to 70. Admiral Porter co-operated with the fleet of gunboats going up Cape Fear river in advance of the troops and subjected the rebel Fort Anderson to a vigorous fire which was feebly responded to.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Feb 13 —The Governor of South Carolina has issued a frantic appeal to the people, notifying all able bodied men that they must join militia service or leave the State. The latter alternative he will probably take good care they shall not have the privilege of embracing. Even foreigners are not exempted.

Congressional.

NEW YORK, Feb 1 —The bill in the House for amending the Constitution so as to abolish slavery passed by a vote of 119 to 59.

WASHINGTON, Feb 1 —Foster, of Connecticut, in the Senate reported an act continuing cases pending in the Territorial Court of Nevada to the courts formed under the State Government. Sherman of Ohio, from the Finance Committee, reported adversely on the bill increasing salaries of members of Congress.

Stewart and Nye from Nevada were sworn in by the Vice President. Stewart drew the long term and Nye the short term.

In the House the bill for constructing a ship canal around Niagara Falls passed.

The President has signed the bill for the amendment of the Constitution abolishing slavery.

WASHINGTON, Feb 8 —The two houses of Congress met in the hall of the House of Representatives at noon. The Vice President opened the certificates of election for President and Vice President. Abraham Lincoln was declared elected President and Andrew Johnson Vice President.

WASHINGTON, Feb 13 —In the Senate Conness of California, called up the bill to establish a mail steamship service between the United States and China. The bill provides that the Post Master General shall have power to contract with any company who will agree for the lowest price to establish a line of steamships to make twelve round trips between San Francisco and China per annum—the contract to go into effect on the 1st of January, 186[illegible], ayes 2[illegible], noes 1[illegible].

WASHINGTON, Feb 11 —In the House the committee on elections reported in favor of admitting Bunyan to a seat as a Representative from Louisiana, and have decided to report in favor of Johnson and Kacks as Representatives from Arkansas.

NEW YORK, Feb 15 —The Post's special dispatch says: The Post office committee of the House have agreed to report a bill establishing a steamship line to China.

WASHINGTON, Feb 1[illegible] —In the House the death of Senator Hicks, of Maryland, was announced, and after appropriate remarks had been made the House proceeded to the Senate Chamber to attend the funeral.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 21 —A private dispatch from the East was received in this city to-day which states that Charleston was evacuated by the rebels on Tuesday last the 14th instant.

The Miserably Imbecile and Grossly False Statements

OF THE

EXPOSED!

GROSS FRAUD UPON THE PUBLIC!

READ THE FOLLOWING:

A few weeks since we advertised the fact that the GROVER & BAKER MACHINE had received the HIGHEST PREMIUM at the Oregon State Fair, and that the same result had attended our exhibitions at every State Fair held during the last four years, when in competition with others. This well known fact was admitted virtually by all Sewing Machine Agents, but TWO MONTHS AFTERWARD the Agent of the Florence Machine—a disappointed aspirant to honors which never have and never will be awarded his complicated mass of unreliable and inferior machinism—comes forward, and in the most [illegible] manner advertises in the California papers that there was A Bogus Report about the Premium at the Oregon State Fair, that the Committee decided in favor of the Florence Sewing Machine, etc, followed by a certificate from Mrs Howe (one of the Committee) to that effect, and apparently substantiated by two other ladies [illegible] FIRST PREMIUM TO GROVER & BAKER [illegible]

To all this we simply replied that the whole statement was FALSE, and that a reply would be given as soon as communication could be had with the proper parties in Oregon. We now propose to give the promised answer, in which it is our purpose to dismiss the subject [illegible] Mrs Howe [illegible]

Read the following Tissue of Falsehoods published by the Agent of the Florence Sewing Machine:

Having heard [illegible] for the first time that the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine [illegible] claims the First Premium on Sewing Machines and Sewing Machine Work at the Oregon State Fair held in Salem, September, 1864, and being one of the Committee on Sewing Machines and Sewing Machine Work at said Fair, I [illegible] making the following statement:

Three of (not all) of the Committee were selected by Mr Johnson, in employ of [illegible] Grover & Baker [illegible] and after a careful examination of the Sewing Machines and Machine Work on exhibition and a long consultation, it was finally decided and agreed by the [illegible] to award the First Premium to the FLORENCE [illegible] as the best Machine for doing all grades of work, and a Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine [illegible]

Statement of MRS. DELAZON SMITH,

ONE OF THE

Committee on Sewing Machines at the Oregon State Fair.

Whose Statement was not taken by the Florence Agent as it would not suit the [illegible]

* * * [illegible] after a full consultation instructed the Secretary [illegible] to write out a Report awarding the GROVER & BAKER MACHINE THE FIRST PREMIUM AND THE SECOND PREMIUM TO THE FLORENCE MACHINE. The Report advertised by the Florence Machine Company as being bogus was the genuine Report, as made out, read and then signed by all the ladies of the committee in presence. The Committee were appointed by Judge Thornton, President of the Society, and not by Mr J Judson, as asserted by the agent of the Florence Machine. I would further state [illegible] Mrs Howe [illegible] that the Florence Machine men were quite angry at the award of the First Premium to GROVER & BAKER and would not allow the Second Premium [illegible]. I was decidedly in favor of awarding the first Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine * * * and was influenced in my decision by the fact that I consider the Florence Machine complicated and more liable to get out of order * * * and I consider the Grover & Baker Machine the most simple and reliable of the two. That it would do all the work the Florence would, besides being the best for ornamental work. I was asked by the other party for a statement of the facts in the case, which I offered to give, but was not accepted, as it did not agree with their wishes; and I further state that the foregoing is true, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.

(Signed) MARY S SMITH

Sworn to, signed and sealed before James Elkins, County Clerk, Linn county.

Statement of MRS. MARY ANN KNOX,

ANOTHER OF THE

Committee on Sewing Machines at the Oregon State Fair.

Whose Statement was not taken by the Florence because it would not agree with their misrepresentations.

* * * Said Committee signed the Report AWARDING THE FIRST PREMIUM TO THE GROVER & BAKER Machine, and the Report alleged by the Agent of the Florence as BOGUS was the TRUE REPORT which was written out by the President, and read by the Committee before signing. The President asked the four ladies of the Committee then present if the Report was agreeable to their wishes, to which they answered in the affirmative, and the contents of the Report were understood by those ladies, particularly by MRS HOWE, as she subsequently spoke of the dissatisfaction expressed by the Agent of the Florence Machine. She also stated that though she liked the work of the Florence, still, IF SHE WAS GOING TO PURCHASE A MACHINE, SHE WOULD PURCHASE A GROVER & BAKER, particularly on account of its ornamental work. Mrs Griffin also expressed herself in the same manner. * * * I also stated that UNDER NO CONSIDERATION would I sign a Report in favor of giving the Premium to the Florence Machine. * * * I CONSIDERED IT TO BE A COMPLICATED AND DELICATE PIECE OF MACHINERY, UNFIT FOR GENERAL USE AMONG THE PEOPLE IN THE COUNTRY, WHILE THE GROVER & BAKER HAD PROVED ITSELF TO BE PERFECT IN EVERY RESPECT. Mr Thornton, President of the Society, appointed the Committee. I signed the Report with a full and complete understanding of its contents, and I believe the others of the four ladies understood it as well as myself.

(Signed) MRS MARY ANN KNOX

Sworn to, signed and sealed before James Elkins, County Clerk, Linn County.

Statement of Mrs. EMILY C. GRIFFIN,

ANOTHER OF THE

Committee on Sewing Machines at the Oregon State Fair,

Who was inveigled into signing the Florence Document by false representations.

* * * On or about the 1[illegible] day of December, Rev [illegible] Parrish, acting for the Florence Machine, called with a written statement purporting to have been made by Mrs Mary A Howe; the printed statement shown in the City [illegible] having been published in the San Francisco Alta, and signed by Mrs Howe, is not such as was represented at the time, as it contains something erroneous that I would not have understandingly have signed. The Report which was made at the time awarded the First Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine and the Second Premium to the Florence; the Report which is advertised as being bogus is the genuine Report which we four ladies signed at the time. My intention in making the previous affidavit was simply to state that one of the principal reasons for awarding the premium to Grover & Baker's Machine was on account of its embroidery.

(Signed) EMILY C GRIFFIN

Sworn to, signed and sealed before James Elkins, County Clerk, Linn county.

Statement of MRS. MARY MILLER,

ANOTHER OF THE

Ladies of the Committee,

Who was inveigled against her wishes into signing the Florence Document.

In order to place myself right in the controversy regarding the award of the First Premium on Sewing Machines, I would state that I was not present at the time the award was made, but thought the Florence Machine deserved the Premium for sewing, and Grover & Baker's for embroidery; but am willing to state that the Report published as bogus is the genuine one. In making my affidavit I simply intended to state [illegible] Mrs Howe [illegible]

(Signed) MARY MILLER

The above is an effectual exhibit of a most dastardly attempt to ROB THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE of fairly won honors by the most contemptible series of falsehoods, misrepresentations and innuendos by the Agent of the Florence Machine WHO HAS NOT DARED ADVERTISE IN OREGON, where the Premium in question was obtained, [illegible] by establishing a controversy [illegible] by time and false impressions [illegible] truth [illegible] Machine [illegible]

ANNIVERSARY DAY —One hundred and thi three years ago to-day George Washi was born in Westmoreland County, Va. T American people still celebrate his birth day behalf of his important services in securing Republican form of Government, but while are doing so a part of his people are mak war upon that Government, which clouds w and reflection the joy upon the anniversary the Father of his country is not called still the whole people, great, peacefully and unit But while the loyal masses reflect that name of WASHINGTON is tarnished by the wick ness of a portion of the people they can conso themselves with the thought that his good spirit looking down with favor upon the hands raised defence of the Laws, the Union and the Const tion. That we can still celebrate the univers of the birth of a Patriot whose spirit patize with the cause of right his spirit is wh pering success to our noble cause. In this sp it is fitting to us—after a long lapse of time receive anew the cheering news of victor feats of battle and the intelligence is of a g dening nature to be received in this remote qu ter of free America on the 22d of February, a the firing of national salutes which is order throughout the length and breadth of the Un where loyal arms are to be found capable of fir them. The Washington Artillery, Capt Jo will fire a salute of thirteen guns at A thirty five at noon and thirteen at 5 P M the plaza in this city, and Capt Mills' Co pany, known as the Washington Guards, w celebrate by having a ball at Turn Verein Ha to which it is hoped the admirers of the d will repair in numbers to the entire satisfactio themselves and the aid of the Company, which one of the best organizations of the city.

A GENERAL DIRECTORY —Geo Owens, w has lately canvassed the upper country, propo to publish a book with the above title, which w contain much useful and valuable informat concerning the principal towns of Idaho Territ and regions east of Portland. As no book the form proposed containing reliable infor mation has yet been published of Idaho Territ and the quartz and placer mines east of the C cade mountains, just now a Directory for re ence to the rich, extensive and rapidly gr mining regions of the upper country seems ne sary, in order to supply a public want. The terests of trade and commerce alike, require c rect and impartial statements of a country wh tends to quicken and hasten its healthy devel ment. The following will show what the w will include: A list of the residents, and b ness Directory of the principal towns in B and Owyhee counties, with Walla Walla, Dal and LaGrande, and items of interest connec with Idaho Territory, Oregon, &c. The bo will contain a map of Boise, and part of Owy and Alturas counties, I T, making it, on whole, a Directory of great use and convenien Mr Owens will canvass Portland for subscr tions, and insert the name of each subscrib doing business.

A CELESTIAL HELL —Officer Hoyt had the pleasant duty of searching among the inner ha of the Celestial haunts on Alder street yester for the purpose of tracing out the aggressors free fight that occurred among the race a f hours previous. The ways are narrow, dark a somewhat similar to a subterranean passa One dark alley was found situated at the head which was a Chinaman with a table arranged fore him for carrying on gambling devic About twenty Celestials were grouped aroun the darkness and the incursions of the offic somewhat took them aback. The place is repre sented as being a filthy hole, and properly su to the barbarities of that race, and the dee done, or fates accomplished in their hell, is course, unknown to "outside" parties. This only another evidence of the dangers incident permitting these hounds to live within the lim of a respectable community.

AN INHARMONIOUS FIRM —We are informed somewhat strategic move of a "third" party partnership of three, to get even with his as iors who had adopted the "freeze out" game w him in business. He "went out collecting" a days since, and securing about four thousand d lars in cash, concluded to have it charged to individual account, thus virtually paying the w to "draw out" of the concern, with his portion the funds. The elder partners thought it an stract which contemplated no consideration their part, for the object of separation, and for with entered diligently upon the work of brig ening up the score. How they will succeed, mains to be seen. But if the persecuted succe in getting the best of his persecutors it will doubtedly teach them a moral lesson, that dealing is better in the long run.

NORTH IDAHO RADIATOR.—A five column we ly bearing the above title, published at Lewist I. T., has made its appearance upon our tab It contains full and valuable accounts of the fairs transpiring in Idaho, in regard to the moval of the Capital to Boise City, together w the "outline of some past events." The tone the paper would indicate that it was more radius rector than a radiator, as it is mainly ba upon one object—annihilation of the new Cap —and the following shows its centre of fo from which the lines are drawn:

"The Radiator is printed in the office which our late Governor absconded at the tim his flight from the Territory. But for the p pose of relieving the minds of our patrons we sure them that matters have changed since the

IDAHO GOLD —We see it stated that the Ida gold, deposited at the San Francisco Mint dur the last year was worth about three millions f hundred thousand dollars. Large quantiti from Idaho, as well as Oregon and Califor were probably never sent to the Mint, and if the gold that has passed through this city co be accounted for it would swell the amoun over twelve millions, above a million a mo

L B VICKERS —Our citizens will remem the half crazy person who represented himse the "Son of God," and published a work in city entitled "A loud voice of the Everlas Gospel." ANNIVERSARY DAY —One hundred and thirty three years ago [illegible] George Washington was born in Westmoreland County Va The American people still celebrate his birth day in behalf of his important service, in securing us a Republican form of Government but while we are [illegible] a part of his people are making war upon that Government which [illegible] with [illegible] upon the anniversary that the father of his country is not called so still by the whole people great peacefully and united but while the [illegible] reflect that the [illegible] of Washington is [illegible] by the wicked [illegible] the people they can [illegible] themselves with the thought that his good spirit is [illegible] That we can [illegible] celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the Pater [illegible] spirit is [illegible] In this spirit [illegible] the cheering news of victorious [illegible] and the intelligence is of a glad [illegible] nature to be received in this remote quarter of free America on the 22d of February [illegible] national salutes which is [illegible] through out the length and breadth of the Union where [illegible] are to be found capable of firing them The Washington Artillery Capt [illegible] will fire a salute of thirteen guns at [illegible] A M [illegible] and thirteen at [illegible] P M from the plaza in this city and Capt Mills [illegible] the Washington Guards will celebrate by having a ball at Turn Verein Hall, to which it is hoped the admirers of the [illegible] will repair in numbers to the entire satisfaction of themselves and the aid of the Company, which is one of the best organization of the city

A GENERAL DIRECTORY —Geo [illegible] Owens who has lately canvassed the upper country [illegible] to publish a book with the above title which will contain much useful and valuable information concerning the [illegible] of Idaho Territory and regions east of Portland As no book in the form proposed containing reliable information [illegible] of Idaho Territory and the quartz and placer mines east of the Cascade mountains, just now a Directory [illegible] the rich extensive and rapidly [illegible] mining regions of the upper country [illegible] in order to supply a public want The interests of trade and commerce alike require correct and impartial statements of a country which tends to quicken and hasten its healthy development The following will show what the work will include A list of the residents and business Directory of the principal towns in Boise and Owyhee counties, with Walla Walla, Dalles and Lagrande, and items of interest connected with Idaho Territory Oregon &c The book will contain a map of Boise, and part of Owyhee and Alturas counties [illegible] making it on the whole a Directory of great use and convenience Mr Owens will canvass Portland for subscriptions and insert the name of each subscriber doing business

A CELESTIAL HELL —Officer Hoyt had the unpleasant duty of searching among the inner halls of the Celestial haunts on Alder street yesterday, for the purpose of tracing out the aggress [illegible] in a free fight that occurred among the race a few hours previous The ways are narrow, dark and somewhat similar to a subterranean passage The dark alley was found situated at the head of which was a Chinaman with a table arranged before him for carrying on gambling devices About twenty Celestials were grouped around in the darkness and the incursions of the officers somewhat took them aback The place is represented as being a filthy hole, and properly suited to the barbarities of that race and the deeds done, or fates accomplished in their hell is of course, unknown to 'outside' parties This is only another evidence of the dangers incident to permitting these hounds to live within the limits of a respectable community

AN INHARMONIOUS FIRM —We are informed of a somewhat strategic move of a "third" party in a partnership of three to get even with his seniors who had adopted the 'freeze out' game with him in business He 'went out collecting' a few days since, and securing about four thousand dollars in cash concluded to have it charged to his individual account, thus virtually paving the way to 'draw out' of the concern with his portion of the funds The older partners thought it an abstract which contemplated no consideration on their part, for the object of separation, and forthwith entered diligently upon the work of brightening up the score How they will succeed, remains to be seen But if the persecuted succeed in getting the best of his persecutors, it will undoubtedly teach them a moral lesson, that fair dealing is better in the long run.

NORTH IDAHO RADIATOR —A five column weekly bearing the above title published at Lewiston I T, has made its appearance upon our table It contains full and valuable accounts of the affairs transpiring in Idaho, in regard to the removal of the Capital to Boise City together with the "outline of some past events" The tone of the paper would indicate that it was more of a radiaseer than a radiator as it is mainly based upon one effect —annihilation of the new Capital —and the following shows its centre of force, from which the lines are drawn

"The Radiator is printed in the office from which our late Governor absconded at the time of his flight from the Territory But for the purpose of relieving the minds of our patrons we assure them that matters have changed since then

IDAHO GOLD —We see it stated that the Idaho gold deposited at the San Francisco Mint during the last year, was worth about three millions four hundred thousand dollars Large quantities from Idaho, as well as Oregon and California were probably never sent to the Mint and if all the gold that has passed through this city could be accounted for it would swell the amount to over twelve millions, above a million a month.

L B VICKERS —Our citizens will remember the half crazy person who represented himself as the "Son of God," and published a work in this city entitled "A loud voice of the Everlasting Gospel" He passed through California and Nevada last fall en route to the east and we learn from the Rocky Mountain News was among the number massacred by the Indians at Plum Creek a few months ago

MUSICAL CONCERT —We understand that gentlemen connected with the musical profession in this city are about to give a concert at Turn Verein Hall, assisted by the German Glee Club We have every reason to believe that the concert will be a good one and prove a treat to lovers of harmony [illegible] the whole to be under the direction of Professor Yost

MORE BULLION —Two days since there arrived in town one hundred and twenty five pounds of bullion from Owyhee This was the product of three ledges in that El Dorado the Ladd & Reed Roxbury and Home Ticket from rock crushed at Miners Mill which seems to be pounding away with considerable effect

NAVIGATION OF THE COLUMBIA —Private letters received at the O S N Company's office in this city last evening, report that a steamer was to make an effort to break the ice blockade above Celilo yesterday If successful a steamer will be dispatched to day for Umatilla and regularly hereafter

THE COMING STEAMER —By private dispatch received yesterday from San Francisco we learn that the steamship [illegible] sailed on Saturday last the 18th inst at 12 o clock M for Victoria and Portland She will be due on Friday evening

THEATRICAL —A good audience witnessed the play at Willamette Theater last evening, on the occasion of the benefit of Mrs [illegible] There will be no performance this evening and to morrow evening Mr G B Waldron will take a benefit

CIRCUIT COURT —The Jury in the [illegible] of Ruebum [illegible] had not returned a verdict [illegible] a late hour yesterday being then out nearly twenty four hours One or two cases of larceny were disposed of

SANITARY —Mrs [illegible] Griswold, Secretary of the Ladies Sanitary Aid Society of this city gives notice of a meeting to day making arrangements for an entertainment to be given the last week in March

CONCERT POSTPONED —Owing to the illness of one of the singers the concert at the M E Church has been postponed until Friday evening next.

The Goddess of Slang

I was [illegible] night,
With [illegible] Mistletoe;
And [illegible] that sweet little word
[illegible]
I was praising the wealth of her chestnut hair,
[illegible]
When she rested her [illegible] head on my shoulder and said
"Hallo, that's [illegible] for you!"

I started in terror, but managed to keep
From showing my intense surprise,
And pressed my lips lightly on brow and on cheek,
And then on her [illegible] eyes.
I told her my love was as deep as the sea,
(As I felt her heart [illegible])
I would worship [illegible] she would be mine,
And she whispered, "That's what's the matter."

I told her her cheeks were the roses put to shame,
Her teeth the [illegible] pearl,
And the ocean's [illegible] could never compare
With the lips of my beautiful girl;
That her voice was like music that comes to the ear
In the night [illegible] and sweet was her smile,
As that of an angel, and softly she breathed,
"Oh that you can [illegible] your pile."

In the book of the starlight I still whispered on,
And pressed her more close to my breast;
Talked sweeter than Romeo, and deeper than Claude,
And told her how true love was blest,
Of bliss in a cottage, of flowers and birds,
(Though I felt the times strange out of joint)
When she looked up with a smile and daintily lisped
In my ear, "I can't see the point!"

I pressed her still closely, I talked still more sweet,
Called the stars to look down on our love,
Made love rhyme to dove, and kiss rhyme to bliss,
And vowed by the heavens above
I'd be constant and true if she'd only be mine,
I pressed her lips and caressed her brown locks—
When she answered me back with a rich saucy laugh,
"Look a-here! don't you after the rocks?"

A True "Lincoln Story."—Perhaps the opinion of the President on General Thomas' great victory before Nashville may be of interest.

"Mr. President," said a friend to him "there isn't much left of Hood's army, is there?"

"Well, no, Medill; I think Hood's army is about in the fix of Bill Sykes' dog, down in Sangamon county. Did you ever hear it?"

Of course the answer was "never."

"Well, Bill Sykes had a long yaller dog that was forever getting into the neighbors' meat houses and chicken coops. They had tried to kill it a hundred times, but the dog was always too smart for them. Finally one of them got a bladder of a coon and filled it up with powder, tying the neck around a piece of punk. When he saw the dog coming he fired this punk, split open a hot biscuit and put the bladder in, then buttered all nicely and threw it out. The dog swallowed it at a gulp. Pretty soon there was an explosion! The head of the dog lit on the porch, the fore-legs caught astraddle the fence, the hind-legs fell in the ditch, and the rest of the dog lay around loose! Pretty soon Bill Sykes came along, and the neighbor said, "Bill, I guess there aint much of that dog of yourn left." "Well, no," said Bill; "I see plenty of pieces, but I guess that dog, as a dog, aint of much more account!" Just so, Medill; there may be fragments of Hood's army around, but I guess that dog as a dog, aint of much more account!

Chinese Treatment of Animals.—They never punish, hence a mule that, in the hands of a foreigner, would be not only useless but dangerous to every one about it, becomes, in the possession of a Chinaman, as quiet as a lamb and as tractable as a dog. We never beheld a runaway, a jibbing, or a vicious mule or pony in a Chinaman's employment; but found the same rattling cheerful pace maintained over heavy or light ground by means of a hur-r or cluck-k, the beast turning to the right or left and stopping with but a hint from the reins. This treatment is extended to all the animals they press into their service. Often have I admired the tact exhibited in getting a large drove of frightened sheep through narrow crowded streets and alleys, by merely having a little boy to lead one of the quietest of the flock in front; the others steadily followed without the aid either of a yelping cur or a cruel goad. Cattle, pigs, and birds are equally cared for.—Travels on Horseback in Montchu Tartary.

A Specimen of Legal Eloquence.—The following is from the Stockton Record of January 30th:

We have often read of some funny attempts at oratory on the part of some "mustang" lawyers in California, but a burst of eloquence made by a lawyer of an interior city, a few days since, was decidedly transcendental. He was defending a young man for stealing a watch, and tried to prove an alibi for his client: "Why, gentlemen of the jury," said he, "this attack on the honesty and probity of my client is a shameful conspiracy to ruin his reputation. At the very moment when, as is alleged in the complaint this robbery was perpetrated, in a leafy grove far from the busy haunts of men, I myself beheld this unsophisticated youth seated on a moss-grown bank, with his arm twined lovingly around the waist of one of the frail daughters of Montezuma's [Montezumas is good], and whispering the accents of youthful love in her sun-burnt ear." [Sun-burnt ear is better.]

A Scotch minister was once busy catechising his young parishioners before the congregation, when he put the usual first question to a stout girl whose father kept a public house. "What is your name?" No reply. The question having been repeated, the girl replied, "Nane o' your fun, Mr. Minister, ye ken my name weel enough. D'ye no say when ye come to our house on a night, 'Bet, bring me some ale?'" The congregation, forgetting the sacredness of the place, were in a broad grin, and the parson looked daggers.

A Universalist clergyman of Wisconsin, who has recently returned home from a term of service as chaplain to a regiment in the army of the Cumberland, spoke at a town meeting, and in the course of his remarks touched on the barbarities of the rebels. "My friends," he said, "I have always preached to you against any such an institution as hell, or future punishment, but my experience within the last few months has modified my opinions somewhat; I believe there is a hell provided for these wicked devils, as a military necessity."

The Boston Courier, a Copperhead sheet, says, poetically:

"They would if they could Stick a stamp on our soul."

To which the Springfield Republican aptly replies:

"Lack of space would cramp;
It isn't big enough to hold a stamp."

Hans Excited.—Several gentlemen were lately discussing the alarming prevalence of the crime of wife desertion, women eloping with other men, etc., when a Teuton, who had been listening with great attention, stepped up and in an excited manner said: "If my wife runs away with another man's wife, I vill shake him out of her preeches, if she been mine own fader, mein Gott!"

"Perhaps you did not know that I had corns," said a good natured man, as a stranger set his carpet-bag down on his toes. "No, stranger," said the carpet-bag man, "but I think you cultivate too much ground."

The following note was lately received by a gentleman from his overseer: "Please send me, by the boy, a pair of trace chains and two door hinges. Jane had twins last night—also, two padlocks."

"How are you, John? I'm deuced glad to see you." "Very well, Charley, come and take a drink, old fellow. 'Tisn't often we meet." "That's a fact, John, and when we do it's meet and drink."

A patriotic speaker was interrupted by a peace man with "How many children have you in the army?" To which the reply came—"One, an only—it's not my fault that I havn't more."

A prominent bachelor politician on the [illegible], remarked to a lady that something was excellent to keep the feet warm in bed. "Yes," said the young lady who has been an attentive listener, "but some gentlemen have an improvement on that which you know nothing of, sir." The bachelor turned pale, and maintained a wistful silence.

"Mr. Jones, don't you think marriage is a means of grace?" "Certainly, madam; anything is a means of grace that breaks up pride and leads to repentance."

Josh Billings says: "If you bring up a child in the way he should go, travel that way yourself." [illegible] couldn't improve on that.

A [illegible] millionaire has named his little heiress Perdita Ann. It is expected that the next little heiress will be named Carrie Sene.

Married life too often begins with rosewood and mahogany and ends with pine.

THE WORLD RENOWNED

SINGER SEWING MACHINES!

MANUFACTORY:
182, 184, 186, 188, 190 and 192 Mott street, New York.

Motto—"The Singer Sewing Machines are the only Machines that can Sew all kinds of Cloth, and with all kinds of Thread."

Singer's Letter A Family Machine is the best and cheapest Machine in the world for Family Sewing. There is no doubt as to the value of our Machines for manufacturing purposes, but it is only of late that the public began to learn that the essential elements of a Machine best adapted to the heaviest work, would also be the elements to be embodied in a Family Machine.

We would ask for our Letter A Machines the attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want Machines for Light Manufacturing Purposes. They embody the principles of the Manufacturing Machines, making, like them, the interlocked stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for FAMILY SEWING and Light Manufacturing purposes, as our Manufacturing Machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES are valuable in proportion to the number of things they can do well. See what ours can do before making a purchase.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best method of purchasing, can obtain it by sending for a copy of the SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S ILLUSTRATED PAMPHLET, which is entirely devoted to the subject. IT WILL BE SENT GRATIS.

THE ATTENTION OF THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY is again called to the OLD GREENBACK CASE!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR since December 17th, 1862, for the rent of my [illegible] Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated, I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the funds to convert a few [illegible] to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus. CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
